

Message to Parents – Jan. 22, 2021

1. The deadline for course selections for next year is TODAY at 10:00pm. Students have received instructions from their teachers and from Mr. Kesteloot – but if they are still unable to do so, please see the instructions in the MESSAGE TO PARENTS – JANUARY 15 memo.

If you are still unable to select courses, please email Mr. Kesteloot ASAP today.

Remember, failure to pick courses now means you have no classes at AVSS for next year.

2. Quad 2 final marks will be available in the portal on Feb. 5. Actual report cards and how we will get those to families is still be determined.
 - *students should hold on to any Quad 2 school materials that they have at home (textbooks, etc.)
 - *students who are NOT returning to AVSS should contact V.P. Wilkins at the school to return chromebooks, textbooks, etc. ASAP.

3. As you have heard by now, the latest projected date for a return to face-to-face learning at school is now Feb. 10. This has several implications, but for now I am asking people to:
 - a) Go on the student OR parent portal and print off your QUAD 3 timetable. You need to do it by the week of Jan. 25-28 since both portals will be closed on the 29th for teacher mark submissions and report card generation.
 - b) Quad 3 starts on Thursday, Feb. 4

Thanks to everyone for their patience and I anticipate more news over the next few weeks. I assure you that when I have it, I will pass it on to you ASAP.

Take care,
M. Moore
